FROM DIANE TO DIANA: Diana Ross made a fashion week appearance to support Diane von Furstenberg, her confidante since the Studio 54 days.

Ross took her seat in the front row right next to DVF's husband Barry Diller, and von Furstenberg paid homage to her friend by blasting "Upside Down" over the speakers as she took her finale spin — as Ross leaped to her feet and gave the designer a standing ovation.

That's what friends are for, after all.
